World Time. The Casio watch is a favorite because it was one of the first watches to show world time. The ability to view the current time in 48 worldwide cities and display 31 time zones on a small world map is extremely helpful for those who travel often, work with international clients, or have family in other time zones. Familiarity with time zones and time changes in different cities can keep a Casio user from calling at an inconvenient time, such as the middle of the night. To reach ...
